NARRATIVE:

Pedro Torres Hernandez has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include possession of dangerous weapons, multiple convictions for assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, multiple burglaries, resisting arrest, driving under the influence, under the influence of PCP, soliciting lewd conduct of a child under 14, disturbing the peace, possession of controlled substances, and violation of parole. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest, a 7 year term for assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury. Hernandez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 14, 2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in August 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Hernandez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substance is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
